The instructor did great, the beginning of the semester was a bit rough but as the semester went on Essaidi became more comfortable in his position and started to approach the lectures with more confidence making it more engaging.
My best advice for the instructor is to keep up the confidence, it benefits everyone :) also great jokes at the end of the semester
I really appreciate how the professor adapted to the class and took the effort to help all the students learn the material. Professor Essaidi was very respectful to the students and provided extra credit opportunities for the students that really wanted to learn.
The class was pretty good, you can tell the professor knows a lot about the class. I had a bit of trouble paying attention in class but I liked how you really just had to read the textbook or the slides. Very generous.
The way this class was set up and planned was pretty much perfect. It was actually one of the classes I enjoyed taking this semester. If anything, I would just suggest setting up the exams on Laulima or MyLab as these platforms give you the ability to automatically grade and post the scores to the Gradebook, saving you a significant amount of time on grading and allowing us to view our grades instantly.
Good course and thank you for providing us so many opportunities for extra credit and ensuring we pass the class. I would just say for a thing to improve is to talk with more enthusiasm/add more emotion because you can be monotone LOL
Good at explaining complicated concepts to help us understand, and provided lots of opportunities to improve our grade. I enjoyed the group project and learning about new countries, it's important to make us learn about them and their locations. Thank you so much and have a good summer
